OBITUARY.
Louis S. J. Champlin.

Louis S. J. Champlin, a native of Norwich, and the oldest engineer in point of service on the Tacoma division of the Northern Pacific railroad, died at McElaine, Wash., on Wednesday, Jan. 21. He was 68 years of age and had been in the service of the Northern Pacific since 1882. He was ranked No. 1 in seniority on the division for several years.

Born in Norwich, the son of Francis P. and Sarah C. Champlin, he went as a young man to Peru, and was engaged in railroad work for the noted American contractor, Henry McGee. He took the first train down the Andes into the city of Lima. He later went to Mexico and in 1888 located in Tacoma.

He died Wednesday at McElaine as he was changing his clothes preparatory to taking his engine for the passenger train going to Tacoma. The body was taken to Tacoma on the train which he was to have run from McElaine. Funeral services were held Friday, Jan. 23, and the body was interred in the Tacoma mausoleum.

The Tacoma Daily Ledger of January 22, a copy of which was received Friday by The Bulletin from William B. Coffey, a former Norwich man, now of Tacoma, has the following to say in regard to Mr. Champlin.

"Apropos it is believed to have been the cause of death. Champlin was widely known in the Northwest, most of the 120 engineers on the division having lived under him at one time or another. For many years he had been No. 1 on the seniority list of the division.

The veteran engine-driver resided at 912 East 33d street. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Nathan and Louis, a daughter, a sister, a Washington State College; a daughter, Lydia, and a granddaughter, Fanny Champlin. He was a member of the Elks lodge at McElaine, a member of the Pacific Northwest Engineers which he joined in Mexico City in 1882. For many years he was insurance agent for the Pacific Northwest of the Brotherhood and was on numerous occasions a delegate to the national conventions of the order.

When the Northern Pacific was established he was one of the first members of the board of managers.

William R. Cronin.
The death of William R. Cronin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Cronin, occurred at his home on Depot Hill, Baitic, Thursday evening, following an illness of several days. He was pneumonia. He was a graduate of Norwich Free Academy class of 1910 and has been employed as a telephone operator at Baitic, Mass.

He is survived by his parents, five sisters, Mary, Alice, Catherine, Agnes, and Mrs. Anna Lemoine, also by two brothers, John and Fred, Oklahoma, and James of Baitic.

Following an illness of ten days caused by pneumonia, Joseph H.
Sheridan, 34, died Thursday morning at 11.30 o'clock at his home at 49 Main avenue. Mr. Sheridan was a native of Norwich and was the son of John and Bridget Sheridan. He was Sheridan. For some years Mr. Sheridan has been master mechanic at the municipal light plant on North Main street. He was a well known member of the Knights of Columbus and was also well known as a singer and a former member of the choir at St.
Patrick's church.

Mr. Sheridan was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth M. Monahan. She survives her husband and are the parents of all the children. He is also survived by four brothers, Philip H. Sheridan, William Sheridan and John H. Sheridan of this city, a former resident of Greenville, occurred Thursday at his home in Greenville after an illness of about a week with the influenza and pneumonia.

He was the husband of Mrs. Beate A. Clark Gaskell, he leaves a young daughter, Elizabeth, and one brother, B. W.
Gaskell, and one sister, Miss Winona Gaskell of Mystic. Mr. Gaskell was a member of the Greenville and Relief societies, No. 72, F. and A. M. of New London, of which he was a past master.

His father, who conducted a drug store at Greenville, died of years ago, moving from there to Mystic, died last summer in Mystic.

James H. Murphy.
The death of James H. Murphy, the eight year old son of Patrick and Lucy T. Murphy, of Mt. Pleasant street, occurred on Friday. The boy was sick only eight hours with black cholera, the most fatal type of the disease.

nearly 100 Smith college women and their friends at the luncheon in New London this (Saturday) afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. The attendance will include Smith girls from New London Windham and Colchester, and the President William Allen Nelson of Smith is to address the alumnae and their friends.

Get Into the Census.
The census is now nearly finished except one or two districts which will be done in a few days. Anyone who knows he has been skipped please communicate with the enumerator, Mr.
Gehrath at the mayor's office or at his residence on Talman street.

PROMISES SURPRISES IN BOND DRIVE

Some agreeable surprises are promised next week in the St. Mary's church drive. It was announced Wednesday night after Rev. W. A. Keefe, the pastor of the church, had held a conference at the rectory with the leaders of the teams and the two division captains, Dr. E. J. Drophy and C. O.
Murphy.

Nothing in the way of new figures from the canvass were given out Wednesday night but it was noted that the cards and reports had been gone over pretty thoroughly and the results had been very satisfactory. The last district announced as reached in the drive was $24,850.

Several substantial gifts were made Friday and the outlook for a successful completion of the campaign grows brighter each day. Another one of the large memorial windows costing $500 has been subscribed for and the requests for memorials of various kinds are coming in fast.

Preparations are being made for special committees to visit the professional men, business men and corporations, who are being made for through the past years with St.
Mary's parish and have given indications of their desire to be called upon in the drive for the fund for the new church.

The first visitation has been made upon the households of the parish and the work in the next few days will comprise the calls to be made where persons were not found at home the first time or where requests were made for return calls.
